Fortress Monroe Is Scene of Accident

ARTILLERYMEN DIE IN BATTLE PRACTICE

Eight Others Perhaps Fatally Injured.

Premature Explosion of a Twelve-Inch Gun Charge Is Cause of Fatality—Score of High-Ranking Officers Are Present but Escape Injury—That Firing Pin Was Not Drawn Back Is Conjecture

Norfolk Va July 21—Ten men of the coast artillery corps were killed today two were probably fatally injured Lieutenant Van Dusen sustained a broken leg and nine other men were hurt, by the premature explosion of a twelve inch gun last during battle practice at Fort Monroe Van Dusen is the only commissioned officer known to have been hurt

Officers Escape

The men engaged in the practice were just completing their course in the drill in school Major General W H Carter assistant chief of staff was present and made a report to the war department

A score or more of high ranking officers of the army including Colonel Bailey assistant chief of the coast artillery corps and others on staff duty were at the fort at the time of the explosion but none of them was near the battery at which the fatal accident occurred

The explosion was similar to many other which have occurred both in the coast artillery and in the army

It is possible that the firing pin had not been drawn back when the breech block was hoved into the gun resulting in the premature explosion of the charge before the breech had been properly screwed in place and made secure

Battle Practice

Lieutenant George L Van Dusen is from Passaic New Jersey He served as a second lieutenant in the infantry and was appointed to the coast artillery only last May He was assigned to the school at Fortress Monroe for a course of instruction

Battery De Russy where the explosion occurred contains three twelve inch guns and is situated almost in the center of the fort There are twenty two men in each gun crew and 120 in the company

The practice today was the first ever attempted in which five batteries were let loose at once under similar conditions The target was a regular structure made of timber sixty feet by thirty feet the size being approximately that of the vital part of a battleship at that distance

This is the first accident of very great proportions which has occurred in the coast artillery corps There have been similar explosions of small guns but never before have more than one or two men been hurt

Great Confusion Reigns

Several of the men who were at the breech of the gun when it exploded were so badly mangled that it was impossible for a time to identify them The breech block blew to the rear but the terrific impact of the explosion was felt in every direction and men were hurled through the air like wisps of straw in a gale

The fact that the victims were blown apart made it impossible for the surgeons at first to determine how many were killed

The confusion which followed the accident made a careful investigation impossible The officers on duty decided that first attention be paid to the injured men who were given aid where they fell and as quickly as possible removed to the hospital

The Identification

The first report received by General Carter was that eight were dead It is believed that this was correct at the time and that two others died of their injuries before they could be removed

The identification of the dead was accomplished more by the process of elimination than by recognition of the bodies As soon as order could be restored the officers took the list of those on duty and by accounting for those who could be found to answer their names the complete list of the dead finally was made up

Colonel Townsley who was in command of the fortress stated in an official report this afternoon that the accident was probably due to the premature ignition of a powder charge

Official Report

Washington July 21—The following official report of the accident at Fortress Monroe was made to the department by General W H Carter assistant chief of staff

Regret to report accident at commencement of student officers battle practice with two twelve inch guns from probable premature explosion resulting in the death of ten men and probable fatal injury of two Lieutenant Van Dusen leg broken and five additional men slightly injured Investigation is being made and will report through regular channels

The target which was in readiness at the time of the explosion was the finishing event in the course of instruction to thirty or more officers of the coast artillery corps who had been in attendance at the artillery school at Fortress Monroe The practice was to have been the most spectacular ever held in the corps Five batteries were manned and ready to fire at the battleship target which was being towed across the

NEW PLAN OF SUFFRAGETTES

Want To Do Soldier Duty in Europe

DEMANDING THE SAME PRIVILEGES AS MEN

They Declare They Should Be Drilled

The Majority of Them Do Not Want Actually To Bear Arms and Fight but Demand Such Training as Their Inferior Physical Condition Permits—Some Want To Do Hospital and Ambulance Work

Berlin July 21—A demand to be allowed to do military service of a certain kind is the latest plan adopted by the suffragettes in continental Europe The suffragettes declare that as they claim the same privileges as men they should perform the same duties and as military service is compulsory upon men the women should do their shares The majority of them do not want actually to bear arms and fight but demand such training as their inferior physical condition permits Primarily they suggest that they should be drilled in ambulance and hospital work with the army and also in certain auxiliary departments such as the commissariat

The women maintain however that to qualify for this kind of work they should be thoroughly drilled in the use of modern weapons to be used in emergencies in which auxiliary troops might find it necessary to defend themselves from an unexpected attack

Duty Before Marriage

The suffragettes further declare that the use of women in these positions at the front would free thousands of able bodied men for duty with the firing line and that their demand ought therefore to be welcomed by every minister of war A small section of the suffragettes go even further and demand the right to serve as soldiers doing exactly what is required of the men in the ranks They admit this is not the military duty should be done before marriage

The demand is meeting with little encouragement from the German war office though the women are taking it seriously

SOCIETY WOMEN WARMLY SCORED

Gotham Club Woman Against Cigaret Evil

SOME SMOKE FOR THE COMRADESHIP

Miss Gaston Takes Shot at Mrs Longworth.

Declares It Is an Outrage for Women Like Mrs Longworth and Miss Sears To Smoke Cigarets and Encourage the Habit to the Ruin of Many a Foolish Girl Who Follows the Example.

New York July 21— I think it an outrage that women of the type of Alice Roosevelt—Mrs Nicholas Longworth now—and Miss Eleanor Sears the Boston society leader smoke cigarets and encourage the habit to the ruin of many a foolish girl who believes it smart to follow their vile example said Miss Lucy Page Gaston of Chicago founder of the Anti Cigaret League of America to a United Press representative at the Hotel Martha Washington today where she is making her headquarters for her New York campaign Miss Gaston declares that cigaret smoking prevail to an astonishing extent among college girls society women actresses and women in general She says she will address a letter of reproof to Miss Sears whom she considers the spokeswoman of the cigaret smoking women and that a committee of the league will visit Mrs Longworth with anti cigaret literature and arguments

If Miss Sears pays no attention to my letter said Miss Gaston I shall pay her a visit as I expect to go to Boston shortly

Won't Tackle Men

I shall try with the aid of the league, to reform cigaret smoking women and should like to start in on Miss Sears and Mrs Longworth We will also go after the boys

How about reforming the men? Oh that's too big a proposition for myself or the league just yet But with the women that's different Do I object to women smoking in private I object to them smoking at all

It is astonishing the extent to which smoking in private prevails Women meet in their boudoirs in the ladies parlors of theaters and steal puff occasionally at fashionable restaurants from the cigarets of their male companions

Do you know continued Miss Gaston casually glancing at the manicured fingers for yellow stains there are as many smoking women of old families and of large wealth in New York City who are as depraved as any of these unfortunate women who walk the streets That is a fact and I have it on excellent authority

For Comradeship

Mrs Philip Snowden the English suffragist who arrived here yesterday when told of Miss Gastons campaign against women cigaret smokers declared that in England it was the anti suffragettes that smoked It is the rich class who smoke in England she said and cigaret smoking in London cafes is not so general as you Americans seem to think

Mrs Gabrielle Stewart Mulliner club woman and lawyer said

It is the women of the leisure class that have taken up smoking as a means of social diversion and for comradeship It all savors of a relaxation from puritanical ideas of virtue and of fine women Cigarets have been passed in many homes in which I have dined and in some clubs notably the Colony club

In the National Arts club composed of men and women members one woman artist tried to introduce cigaret smoking for women She never tried it the second time The board of governors then adopted a by law prohibiting women smoking I do not see why decent women married or single think it worth while to emulate the practices of the woman of the half world Wherever women have to have clear brains they refrain from stimulants of all kinds as well as smoking

Empire State Private Tries To Commit Suicide

TO THE PREJUDICE OF ARMY DISCIPLINE

Order Is Made Public by War Department

Private John J Guyer Pleads Not Guilty to All Charges, but He Is Convicted by Court-Martial and Sentenced to Military Prison at Leavenworth Kansas—He Uses Army Blanket To Make a Rope

Washington July 21— For attempting to commit suicide by hanging himself by the neck in his cell at Fort Slocum New York, to the prejudice of good order and military discipline John J Guyer a private in the Fourth United States recruit company must serve one and one half years in the military prison at Fort Leavenworth Kansas In accordance with an order made public at the war department

The record in the case sets forth that Guyer attempted to deceive the officers by concealing the fact that he had once been arrested and sentenced to imprisonment at Dannemora New York and that when he was placed in jail at Fort Slocum he made two attempts to end his life one by hanging and one by endeavoring to cut his throat with a knife

An additional charge was placed against him It was that he did mutilate the following article of uniform clothing issued to him viz One olive drab blanket valued at $7 81

This blanket was used by the prisoner to make a rope with which he endeavored to hang himself

STILL BELIEVE NEGRO FANATIC

Washington Girls Held by the Mystic Spell

BOARD OF CHARITIES CONSIDERS THE CASE

One of the Girls Slowly Nears Other Side

Addie Codding Declares the Lord Tells Her in a Dream To Stay in Washington Until Black Prophet Is Released and When the Almighty Bursts the Bonds She May Leave

Washington July 21— The Lord told me in a dream that I must stay in Washington until Brother Sturdivan is released from the prison of the Philistines When the Almighty bursts his bonds then I may leave but not before declared Addie Codding 19 year old girl disciple of the Rev Fourth Sturdivan negro prophet who is in jail in Baltimore and under whose spell two white women are reported to be in this city

The board of charities after considering the case of the Codding girl ordered that she be sent to Boston where she has relatives The police endeavored to enforce this order but the girl rebelled

It is the first thing possible for me to choose between the order from on high and the order of the police she declared with great composure

This is the most pitiful case I have ever had anything to do with said Captain Boardman This girl seems to be so completely dominated by the negro preacher that reasoning and persuasion fall utterly to the test She is absolutely convinced that she must stay here and starve and suffer in order to induce Lord me to release the negro after which she believes she will be directed by divine influence to go to Africa as a missionary

Sustains Severe Blow

If she do not agree to leave town today we will have to arrest her and she will be sent to a sanitarium

A severe blow was sustained by Hilda Johnston mother Norwegian girl who under the negros mystic spell surrendered herself in marriage to him as a sacrifice and in evidence of her humility when she learned by letter of the death of her mother in Norway and of the negro prophet when she lies ill today, the doctors said there was less hope for her recovery than there was yesterday She has been at the point of death much of the time since she recently gave birth to a child whose father is the Black prophet who is serving a sentence for bigamy At fasting rites were begun today by which it is hoped that the Johnston girl may be sent back to Norway if she recovers

When seen at Georgetown hospital Gertrude Monson the other of the two victims of the negro fanatic today showed that she is rapidly giving way under the ravages of pellagra She is so weak that she is hardly able to speak but when the name of Sturdivan was mentioned a light came into her faded eyes and her lips moved in prayer The nurses said that she returned her form to him in the night

Physicians Investigate

The worst feature of the case said the nurses is that she evidently does not wish to live She has lost all interest in everything except his return and I am afraid her interest in him will end soon

Doctors who have investigated the case on behalf of the government and the district health officers that the disease developed from the self inflicted punishment and fasting through which the woman went in her fanatical efforts to bring about a materialization deliverance of the negro from prison

The case is receiving close and most expert attention as it is of scientific interest being the first instance of the dread scourge so far north

All the girls came from good Norwegian families said Mrs M B Cox mission worker today and have had all have been trying to save them from the clutches of the negro and his spell I think the saddest part of the situation but the sad news that of Hilda Johnston mother has almost driven her mad The mother has implored letters begging her to come home I think now that we ought to get her to renounce the negro and if she is her condition improves"

BIG INCREASE IN HOMICIDES

Former Ambassador White Writes Bishop Ludden

THE MORMONS OF BARNYARD MORALS

Bishop Refers to Multi Millionaires as Such

White Declares the Immediate Cause of the Whole State of Things with Constantly Increased Disrespect of Law Is, Sickly Sentiment Pervading Whole Country on This Subject

Syracuse N Y, July 21—Former Ambassador to Germany Andrew D White has written Bishop Patrick A Ludden thanking him for coming in a recent newspaper article the phrases multi millionaire Mormons of Barnyard morals and the sporting tuft and title hunting fraternity and taking occasion to urge the bishop to take up other subjects for publication

Mr White says With homicides increased within fifteen years from 7000 a year to nearly 10 000 placing us by far in the lead of all civilized nations in this respect and with capital convictions in only about seventy cases last year with life sentences averaging a most seven years with trials for murder which in most other with I count ries would be ended in a few months stretch out to years by new evidence by the testimony of paid experts by endless technicalities for appeal by every sort of chicanery and pettifoggery until the whole thing becomes a farce with the fact that the penal law as regards murders seems to have utterly ceased to have any deterrent effect it seems to me that you and men like you should undertake a better education of public opinion on this subject

The immediate cause of the whole of this state of things with constantly increased disrespect of law is in my opinion a kind of sickly sentiment pervading the whole country on this subject which while it claims to be humanity is really the greatest cruelty in that it mainly responsible for all the murders It is on account of this mawkish sentiment that thousands of widows and orphans are in bereavement and poverty today

Where do you get your love poems? Souvenir of Florida.

A young woman who recently returned from a trip to Florida brought with her as a souvenir a small cocoanut shell on which a human face had been roughly carved with a few strokes of a knife. This carving was said to have been the work of a Seminole Indian, and on this representation the young woman had bought the shell; but she was beset later by some doubts as to the authenticity of the claim. She therefore asked a well-known collector of Indian curios if he thought the carving really had been made by a Seminole Indian. He examined carefully the faintly-outlined face and handed the shell back to her with the verdict: "Very likely it was. My only reason for questioning it would be that I am not sure a Seminole would do that much work."

Women Ahead.

As women, we should not quarrel with our horizon, nor should we shrewishly arraign poor man because he has civilized us at his expense. We must realize simply that emotionally we are centuries ahead of him, and that we shall have to wait patiently for him to grow up and meantime moderate our steps to his just as we do when we take the baby out for an airing.—Woman's Life.

The One Weak Spot.

"You ought to have your car equipped with demountable rims," said an automobile man to Richard C. Jenkinson, the other day. "All you have to do is carry an extra rim with the tire. In case of a puncture it can be easily attached by a twelve-year-old child in two minutes." "Yes," said Jenkinson, "but the trouble is always to find the twelve-year-child."—Ohio Clark News.

A Slight Jolt.

PAINT RAWN IN BLACKEST HUES

Death Not Held Sacred By Railroad Attorneys.

NAMED AS BRAINS OF FRAUD

Counsel For Illinois Central Say They Expected Suicide Not Only of Monon President, but of Another Former Officer In Company as Result of Car Repair Scandal—Detectives Find Evidence to Prove That Chicagoan Was Murdered.

Chicago, July 22.—That Ira S. Rawn, president of the Monon railway, was not a suicide, but was the victim of a midnight marauder, is the deduction made following late developments in the case. One of the most important new features is the finding of the second bullet. This is highly important as showing that Mr. Rawn fired at the intruder. Failure to find this bullet and the fact that but one chamber of his revolver was empty has done much to sustain the theory of suicide

Still another important development was a private examination of the servants and neighbors by detectives said to have been employed by insurance companies These men, after many hours' work, announced they had no doubt Mr. Rawn had been murdered and that the insurance companies would not contest payment of his policies

Railway Attorneys Talk.

Against all these features which indicate that he was slain by an assassin—either a novice whom he surprised in his home or someone prompted by revenge or a deeper motive, as no robbery was attempted—is the statement by attorneys for the Illinois Central that Mr. Rawn was on the verge of being exposed as the head and front of the conspiracy to loot that company of $1,500,000. None of the men making these charges will stand for them over his signature, but all talk freely of the case and say the evidence was overwhelming.

He was to have appeared for examination Tuesday of this week, and it is claimed that on that occasion the attorneys would have fastened upon him the responsibility for the Illinois Central graft conspiracy. Whatever the outcome, it was stated authoritatively by the Illinois Central attorneys that Rawn's estate would be tied up in the courts in an effort to reimburse the road for its losses: The amount of his estate is not exactly known, but it is thought he was worth, aside from his life insurance, fully a million dollars.

Attorneys connected with the Illinois Central graft inquiry painted Rawn as the head, front and brains of the $1,500,000 conspiracy. Some of them went further and said they had expected his suicide, and that they are even now expecting the suicide of another former and prominent official of the road who has not thus far been mentioned in connection with the graft cases.

MT. STERLING IN LEAD

Madison County Village Noted For Automobile "Density."

Columbus, O., July 22.—According to records in the office of State Registrar of Automobiles Caley, Cuyahoga county leads all Ohio counties in the number of automobiles, having 5,666 registered.

Hamilton county is second with 1,926, Franklin third with 1,665; Lucas fourth with 1,375, Montgomery fifth with 1,036, and Summit sixth with 838.

The records are kept by counties, but Registrar Caley figures that the city of Cleveland has fully 5,000 of the total number in Cuyahoga county, that Cincinnati has 1,700, Columbus 1,450, Toledo 1,200, Dayton 900 and Akron 700

But there is a little town down in Madison county—Mt. Sterling—that has all the big cities beaten when it comes to what the auto department calls "density" of machines; that is, number of machines in proportion to the total population Mt. Sterling has 1,500 inhabitants and 75 automobiles. That means one auto to every 20 of population.

WOMEN TO BE MORE ACTIVE POLITICALLY

That Is the Determination Reached, Wednesday.

FLORENCE RICHARDS W. C. T. U. MEETING

Is One of the Most Enthusiastic Held in Years—Addresses Made by Mrs. Carrie Flatter, the State Organizer, and Mrs. Belle Roberts, County President.

A very enthusiastic meeting was held by the Florence Richards W. C. T. U. at the Wesley M. E. church, Wednesday afternoon. The discussions engaged in during the afternoon, relative to the part which the women of the union should take in politics, proved interesting, and it is probable, that, as a result of the meeting, a much more active part will be taken by them in the future.

One of the principal addresses of the meeting was that delivered by Mrs. Carrie Flatter, the state organizer, who told of the effort that should be made by the women to have the right men elected to office. She instructed them regarding the various committees, and told them to whom their petitions, asking that good men be elected, should be presented. Mrs. Flatter also urged her hearers to take as active a part as possible in the campaigns.

Mrs. Belle Roberts, the county president, was present at the meeting, and it was arranged to hold the annual W. C. T. U. convention at Caledonia, August 24.

A number of other business matters were given attention at the meeting.

The next regular meeting will be held in two weeks at the church.

GIGANTIC FENCE IS LOCATED BY POLICE

Thousands of Dollars' Worth of Goods Handled.

SOME OF THE LOOT COMES FROM MARION

Shipped to the Queen City from Marion Over the Erie—John Farley and Niel P. Nielsen Are Held in Cincinnati Charged with Receiving Stolen Goods.

"That over $5,000 in stolen goods was handled innocently by one of the biggest and best-known auctioneering firms of the city, and that an even larger amount of loot may have passed through the firm's hands, was the statement made at police headquarters yesterday by railroad detectives and special agents who are interested in the cases of John Farley and Niel P. Neilson, charged in police court yesterday with receiving stolen goods," says Wednesday's Cincinnati Enquirer. "It is said the auctioneering firm is still checking up its books, and have nowhere arrived near the end of the list of alleged stolen stuff.

"In addition, the detectives are said to have unearthed a stock of goods consisting of 5,000 cigars, silk stockings and gloves valued at $800, and lace curtains worth $500, stolen from the D., L. & W. railroad at New York. Detective Beatty, of Hoboken, identified the stuff. Phonographs and phonograph records valued at $200 were also uncovered by Superintendent E. N. Bolleau and Detectives Distler and Tiernan of the B. & O. S. W. secret service. It is alleged the stuff was shipped over the Erie road and stolen at Marion, Ohio. The gang's operations were country-wide, it is claimed, and 'fences' were established in every big city, reputable business and jobbing houses being innocent accomplices of the loot receivers. Two of the latter were stationed in this city, and used local business men as cats' paws in the trade.

"Some of the stuff mentioned above as being stolen in the East was shipped here in piano boxes, marked 'pianos,' and when one of the gang's agents called for the 'pianos' he was given the boxes without question. The stuff, the officers further allege, was sold in many instances to the public legitimately under the auctioneer's hammer. It is claimed a number of persons in the East have been under surveillance, and enough evidence has been gathered to warrant the assertion that arrests may be made at any time and at a wholesale rate.

"Farley and Nielson, who were arraigned in police court yesterday, were arrested by Detectives Distler and Tiernan and the Covington police on Johnson street, Covington. Judge Bode continued their cases until July 23.

"While the case is pending the railroad detectives will continue their search for stuff from the freight cars, which is believed to have been sold here. In other cities the same sort of search is being conducted."

The only Farley known in Marion is "Jack" Farley. He was sent up about a year ago to serve a one-year term for obtaining money under false pretenses. At the time the crime was committed he worked for G. W. Baker, the piano dealer, and was located in the workhouse at Xenia, from which place he was brought to Marion after serving his term for a minor offense committed in Springfield.

The No. 2 fire department and the ladder wagon of the No. 1 department were called out shortly after 1 o'clock, Thursday by an alarm sent in from box, No. 39. The fire was in some dead grass on the Boulevard, south of Columbia street, and started from a spark from an engine of a passing train. The No. 2 department, in making the run to the fire, was stopped at the residence of Carrie Durr, on the Boulevard, where fire had broken out just before the alarm sounded. The department stopped and extinguished the blaze before much damage was done. The fire started by a gas hose melting off and setting fire to the floor and a bed nearby.

Colonel Roosevelt Makes a Frank Statement

ROOSEVELT OUTLINES PRESENT POSITION

Statement Follows Visit of an Ohio Judge.

It Is Reported That Kinkade Has the Indorsement of Taft and Seeks That of Roosevelt, but If That Is Object of Visit He and Colonel Are the Only Ones Who Know Outcome of Little Chat

New York July 19 — I never recommended any man for an office and do not intend to do so this year I hope however that there will be progressive platforms adopted by the various Republican state conventions this fall

Colonel Theodore Roosevelt in the above statement made today in his editorial in the Outlook outlined his present position in the political world Roosevelt had just had a conversation with Judge Reynolds Kinkade of Toledo Ohio whose name for the Republican nomination for governor of Ohio has just been launched Kinkade was a guest at Beverly of President Taft Sunday and it was reported at that time that he had been O K'd by the president and would come to New York to get the Roosevelt endorsement

It was that was the object of the visit only Roosevelt and Kinkade know the outcome On leaving the colonel the Ohio jurist refused to make any public statement or discuss his boom although he said that the latter existed only in certain newspapers in his native state

When asked about the visit Colonel Roosevelt said that he only saw Judge Kinkade for a few moments and that there was nothing said while they were together about politics He then declared that he will recommend no candidate for office this year and made plain his position regarding the state platforms

To Oust Woodruff

New York state politics entered a new phase today into the Roosevelt control Congressman W W Cocks who comes from Roosevelt's home county was closeted with him for some time When he left he said

We discussed the chairmanship of the Republican state committee and also the chances for the substitution of from new committeemen in numbers of districts We also discussed political conditions in the state generally but there was no definite conclusion reached

It was generally believed however that the outcome of today's meeting will be in organized attempt on the part of Roosevelt and his friends to secure immediate control of the state committee

Chairman Timothy E Woodruff is called upon to resign at the next meeting of the committee if he does not resign he and his place is to be taken by a progressive Congressman Cocks however refused to confirm or deny that this is the program Another who discussed New York politics with Roosevelt was Congressman Lodtker of Brooklyn who said that he called on Hill the colonel and that will not be a candidate for re election

I told him that I was an intimate friend of Lodtker and I also told him that if here was one thing which had the Democrats in the coming election it was a man

Don Francisco Leon de la Barra the Mexican ambassador to United States called on Roosevelt at his request's

Discuss Labor Conditions

While in Buffalo guests Colonel Roosevelt took with him to his club C A Hayes president of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Engineers and A Fox general secretary of the Association of Engineers and Firemen of England He said that they came along to talk over labor conditions at home and abroad

Mr Kinkade of Toledo made the trip to confer with Colonel Roosevelt and from later this afternoon it was positively asserted by those who were close to both men that Kinkade has in his possession a telegram from President Taft endorsing him for the most available candidate for the Republican nomination In addition that he hoped to have Roosevelt also approve his candidacy If he can get the Roosevelt backing it was said he would be in a position to get the factions of the Republican party in Ohio to unite on him and present an unbroken front in the coming campaign

Judge Kinkade however denied the existence of such a letter

ARMY ON THE ANXIOUS SEAT

New Boss, General Wood, Goes on the Job

NUMBER OF REFORMS ARE NOW EXPECTED

May Not Meet Approval of the Army Men

One of the Questions Which Will Be Taken Up by General Wood Is the Physical Test and His Strenuous Career Indicates That He Will Make Things Lively—Carter Will Be Assistant Chief

Washington July 19 — The army is on the anxious seat today With a new boss on the job it is expected Major General Leonard Wood who today becomes chief of staff will make things hum until his own ideas are put into operation Although he was appointed to succeed Major General J Franklin Bell last April since that time he has been on a trip to Argentina to represent the United States at the centennial celebration

In the meantime many important questions have been piling up awaiting his decision Just what effect the personality of the new chief of staff will have on the army is a matter of much moment to the officers who know something of his strenuous career It is expected that he will undertake most actively a number of reforms which might not meet with the approval of the army at large

Physical Test Question

One of the questions which will be taken up by General Wood is the physical test of officers Since President Roosevelt inaugurated this system many officers have been hoping that it would be modified General Wood is one of the foremost of physical culture enthusiasts

Instead of being made mild it is not unlikely that the test will be made harder than ever The detail of troops to the Philippine is another matter that will be disposed of by General Wood very soon He has also a number of ideas regarding cooperation between the regular army and the militia which he probably will attempt to put in practice

General Carter who has been acting chief of staff will take his place as assistant chief General Bliss whom he succeeds will go to San Francisco to relieve General Barry who takes command of West Point

DEPLORES THE EXTRAVAGANCE

Fairbanks Touches Upon Public Questions

TALKS TO OMAHA ADVERTISING MEN

Address Is the Chief Feature of Day

Former Vice President in Speaking of Extravagance Says There Are Thousands and Tens of Thousands of Men on the Government Payroll in Excess of Any Reasonable Requirement

Omaha Neb July 19 — Former Vice President Charles W Fairbanks came to Omaha to aim his first blow at those who criticise the president the administration and the men in congress who uphold the presidents action Mr Fairbanks address was the chief feature of the second days session of the advertising men

There is perhaps nothing more reprehensible than the loose impeachment of the motives of the chief executive Fairbanks said the down right misrepresentation of his acts distortion of his record by suppression of the truth or by pure falsehood No possible good can result therefrom It may be diverting to a certain class to witness such brutality towards the head of the nation but upon sober reflection they must perceive the hurtful results

What has been said of the executive applies to the indiscriminate reckless assault upon the congress

Deploring public extravagance, Mr Fairbanks declared the tendency is toward overburdening the present and the future

Many on Civil List

One of the most conspicuous sources of extravagance in the name of law and public necessity is the rivers and harbor bill There is not a measure of this character which does not carry appropriations unauthorized by any general public good and which are only sanctioned by local pride Such measures are the result of a combination The remedy lies in giving to the president the power to veto the obnoxious items which may be done without injury to appropriations essential in the wide public interest Many executives have hesitated before affixing their signatures to such measures but they have rarely vetoed them

Another wasteful form of extravagance said Mr Fairbanks is the undue multiplication of the civil list There are thousands and tens of thousands of men who are upon the government payroll in excess of any reasonable requirement

To the advertising men Mr Fairbanks urged the need for more intelligent advertising methods abroad if the United States is to occupy a larger place in the markets of the Orient

Poor Time for Pun

Neither Mr Ellis nor the senator had much to say regarding the conference but both agreed that the meeting had been satisfactory in every way Mr Ellis declared that his call was principally concerning the platform to be drawn up for the convention rather than any one candidate for governor

RULE OF YOUNG TURKS DISLIKED

A Revolution Is Momentarily Expected.

THE REACTIONARIES ARE WORKING HARD

Turkish People Are Praying for Success

While the Constitutional Government Sweeps Away Some of the Abuses Which Mark Absolute Monarchy It Brings Down Upon the Turkish People More and Greater Abuses

Constantinople July 19 — A revolution against the rule of Young Turks is momentarily expected in Turkey and strange as it may seem the Turkish people are almost a unit in praying for success for the reactionaries

It was just two years ago that the world was startled with the news that the Young Turks had marched into Constantinople deposed Sultan Abdul Hamid placed his brother on the Ottoman throne and created a form of constitutional government with a parliament but the mass of the Turkish people has come to realize that their lot has not improved by the change

While the constitutional government has swept away some of the abuses which marked the absolute monarchy it has brought down upon the Turkish people more and greater abuses

The parliamentary government of the Young Turks is an empty shell Martial law is still proclaimed in Constantinople, so that persons making themselves politically objectionable to the leaders of the Young Turk movement can be arrested and thrown into prison it will The Young Turks have exercised this power to the extreme and Constantinople prisons are overcrowded with independent thinkers

Abdul Hamid Wanted

Those opposed to the Young Turks committee are oppressed and maltreated just as badly as the Young Turks themselves were treated by the former sultan

The people had grown to expect this oppression from an absolute monarch but it galls when used by the Young Turks who promised freedom

The revolutionary spirit is being fostered by thousands of reactionary officials who lost well paying posts by Mohammedan priests who believe the new regimme will lead to infidelity to the Moslem religion and by true followers of Abdul Hamid who will go to any extreme to bring the deposed sultan back from Salonica where he is held prisoner by the Young Turks

The Young Turks declare the repressive methods they are using are necessary to combat these elements and safeguard the new constitution

Their enemies point out however that the Young Turks oppress not only the reactionaries but also the friends of liberty and progress who can not see events exactly as the Young Turks want them seen It is the persecution of the progressives that is weaning away the greatest friends of the Young Turks and that promises to undermine their rule to such an extent that the revolt planned by Abdur Hamid's friends will be successful

AUTO SMASH-UP ON THE BIG ISLAND PIKE

Mark Chase Runs into "Dead" Machine on Road.

LATTER MACHINE IS TOSSED INTO DITCH

Chase Machine Is Badly Damaged as a Result of the Compact, and Daniel Adams Suffers Broken Arm and a Number of Serious Cuts and Bruises.

Headed by the lights on the automobile of Dr. F. B. Sawyer, who was returning home after having made a call at Meeker, Mark Q. Chase, in his automobile, plunged into the machine of Dr. C. W. Jacoby, which was standing, out of commission, along the roadside three miles west of this city on the Big Island pike, at 10 o'clock Thursday night, and was almost totally wrecked. Daniel Adams, a dealer in rice lands in Arkansas, who was riding in the rear seat of the Chase machine, was thrown out and seriously injured.

Later that day afternoon, Dr. Jacoby was compelled to abandon his machine, not being able to find the cause of the trouble, and left it "dead" on the road. As Sawyer was returning, he saw the machine and turned out and, after having passed it, met Chase going west, but in the darkness could not tell who the parties were. Speeding along at a good rate, Chase kept to the other side of the road thinking that Sawyer had turned in order to pass him, and plunged directly into the derelict machine, which Sawyer had avoided, and completely turned it about, throwing it into the ditch.

When the Chase auto crashed into the derelict, Adams was thrown out of his seat and landed in the road. A friend, named McKeever, from Bucyrus, who was also with Chase, was considerably jarred, but was uninjured.

Hearing the crash, Sawyer stopped, after he had gone considerable distance. He came back to see what the trouble was and brought the Chase party back to the city with him. The Chase auto was so badly damaged that it could not be used.

Arriving here, Adams was given surgical attention. It was found that he suffered two scalp wounds, one measuring an inch and a half on the top of his head, and also the fracture of one of the bones of his left arm. In addition he suffered a bad cut in the lower lip and cuts and bruises about the body. He is now at the Pilgrim Inn, where he may be confined for some little time.

Jacoby's machine, one of the high-wheeled variety, was not particularly damaged.

At the time of the accident, the party in the Chase machine was enroute to Meeker, where the Irwin barn dance was in progress.

Both machines were brought to this city Friday.

GETS FOUR MONTHS IN THE WORKHOUSE

Columbus Engineers Shows His Contempt for Law.

David E. Mason was brought back from Columbus, Friday, by J. W. Ulsh, officer for the Humane society, and was arraigned before Justice Gompf to answer to a charge of non-support of his two children, aged eight and ten years.

Mason was arrested last December on the same charge and on pleading guilty, was sentenced to the workhouse, but the sentence was suspended by his giving an order on the Casparis Stone company, of Columbus, to furnish $20 a month for the support of the children.

Although Mason makes $20 a week as an engineer, he has furnished but $10 since giving the order. After five dollars had twice been taken from his pay, Mason asked his employer to see the order and when it was shown to him, he destroyed it.

When arraigned, Friday evening, Mason entered a plea of guilty and was fined $25 and the costs in the case, and sentenced to four months in the Columbus workhouse. He was taken to Columbus, Saturday morning by Constable Ulsh.

DEDICATE NEW ORGAN WITH FITTING SERVICES

And Celebrate Twenty-Fifth Anniversary of Church.

A MEMORABLE DAY FOR SALEM CHURCH

Former Pastor, Rev. F. W. Eiermann, and Rev. H. Ketterjohn Assist Rev. Joseph Reinicke in the Special Services at the Evangelical Protestant Salem Church.

Services commemorating the twenty-fifth anniversary of the dedication of the Evangelical Protestant Salem church, and the dedication of the new church pipe organ were held Sunday morning and evening. Special programs were rendered at both services, the morning services being in German, and the evening services in English.

The morning program opened with an organ prelude by Miss Mabel Leffler, who presided at the organ throughout the morning and evening. Following came the invocation by Rev. Joseph Reinicke and a hymn. After the creed and an anthem, the historical sketch of the church was given by the pastor, and the organ dedication followed. Signor Muscat cat contributed a pleasing vocal selection, and after the scripture lesson and a song, the morning sermon was delivered by Rev. F. W. A. Eiermann, of Erie, Pennsylvania, a former pastor of the church. Rev. Eiermann led in prayer and after a selection by the choir, Philip Ebert, vice president, made a short talk. The program concluded with a hymn, benediction, silent prayer and an organ selection.

Rev. Mr. Eiermann took the text of his sermon from Psalms 34: 3, the theme being, "O magnify the Lord with me and let us exalt His name together." In part he spoke as follows:

"It is a good thing to give thanks unto the Lord, and to sing praises unto Thy name, O Most High." The keynote of the festivities, which we celebrate today shall be of praise and thanksgiving, magnifying the name of our God, since we are here to celebrate the twenty-fifth anniversary of the dedication of this house of God, and are to dedicate this beautiful new pipe organ to the service of the divine God.

There are all manner of festivities observed, anniversaries celebrated, monuments unveiled, buildings dedicated, at which occasions the merits of man are duly magnified, services celebrated, accomplishments extolled, names praised, generosities and benevolences exalted. Let such sentiments be for other occasions, we would praise the goodness of our God, who during twenty-five years has dwelt among His people in this, His holy temple.

This does not preclude our acknowledgement of the services and sacrifices of the fathers and mothers that reared this house of worship, and we ought to recall the faithful services of the various ministers, under whose ministry the church was built and improved, and the congregation was led upon the road of progress. We appreciate the good work of the congregation at the present time with its faithful pastor; and which has made possible the installation of this new instrument. I rejoice with you and offer to join my sincerest congratulations and best wishes to your silver anniversary and your new achievements, hoping and praying that Salem church may for many years to come be a place where people meet gladly to serve their God and to receive abundant blessings for the edification of heart and soul.

We magnify and praise God for His past favors and blessings.

The word of God, the bread of life has been distributed freely at this place during a quarter of a century, at times as a still small voice, at other times as a fire and an earthquake.

Here the young people have received the blessing of the church in baptism and confirmation. Sinners have been comforted through the Lord's supper, as their souls were fed with the body and blood of Christ, and they were assured of divine grace. A few times, at least, words of blessing were spoken upon parties entering upon holy matrimony, and many times as the caskets stood before this altar, in which were bedded the lifeless forms of beloved ones, the minister, in obedience to the divine command, "Comfort ye, comfort ye My people," spoke words of consolation that dried the bitter tears and healed the wounded hearts.

What a number of dear and precious recollections and memories of the most sacred nature attach to this house of God, and what a fund of blessings has been spent here during the past twenty-five years, that we indeed "love the habitation of this house, and the place where God's honor dwelleth."

As a further monument to God and as a means to increase His praise, you have installed this new pipe-organ. If David has introduced various instruments of music in worship, such are in our modern times represented in the pipe organ. May the harmonies of this organ carry as upon ethereal wings before the throne of God your worship and prayer, petitions and requests, praise and thanksgiving, and lend expression to your deepest emotions of joy and sorrow, gladness and pain, exultation and mourning. May its music carry to you inspiration of courage and ardor, strength in weakness, hope in distress. Let your hymns and songs accompany the strains evoked from this musical instrument with its hundreds of pipes, and remember that man has in his lungs and throat fourteen direct and thirty indirect muscles, capable of producing more than a million sounds. What a combination of sounds between organ and singer, what great possibilities to magnify the Lord and to exalt His name with melodies.

Praise ye His name.

The evening program was opened with an organ prelude, and after the opening exercises and prayer, Miss Clara Leffler contributed a violin solo. The historical sketch was again given by Rev. Joseph Reinicke, and the scripture lesson and a choir anthem followed. Rev. H. Ketterjohn, of Kenton, delivered the sermon which was a forceful one. Prayer was followed by a selection by the choir, after which A. Kull, the president, made an address. The benediction, doxology, silent prayer and a selection on the organ closed the services.

Rev. Mr. Ketterjohn delivered an excellent discourse on the subject, "The Song of the Soul." He took his text from Psalms 95, and spoke in part as follows:

"This day has been one of rejoicing. You have been permitted to look back upon the twenty-five years which have elapsed, since you entered for the first time, this, your house of God. You have placed as a sign of your gratefulness this beautiful organ in this sanctuary, desiring to continue the song of thanksgiving that wells up from your heart. I am happy that the Lord listens, not to the tones as they come from the imperfect throats, sometimes harsh and discordant, but He hears the song of the soul, always beautiful, clear and resonant.

Music has always occupied an important place in the worship of the Christian church. Home is no home, the church no church and heaven no heaven if music finds no welcome. It can be understood why the writer of the Revelations calls on every human instrument, speaks of the great chorus of voices singing that great unknown song. Heaven is the place of thanksgiving and the song is the only fit medium by which the soul can express its gratefulness.

There was a time when there was no singing in the church. Israel was ever a singing nation, and while it produced no great painters or sculptors, it did produce some singers. The first Christian church was a singing church. The church passed through a songless period, save such few hymns which welled up from the hearts of a few God-fearing people whom the Lord always holds in reserve. One of the questions that should interest us is, how to make the church a singing church. You can never have congregational singing, if that is all you have, unless you have singing in the home, on the street, singing everywhere."

Miss Anna Lynn, of this city, and John E. Dice, of Akron, formerly of Marion, eloped to Covington, Kentucky, Saturday, and were married there by a justice of the peace. Both are twenty-six years of age. They eloped, their friends say, "just for the fun of it." There was no parental objection.

An Old Deed Filed.

A warranty deed, lost since 1863, was filed for record by Attorney Charles H. Conley, Monday. The deed was found among some old papers by William M. Munsinger and the recording of it removes a cloud on the title of the property owned by J. Sidney Moore, just west of the First Presbyterian church, on west Church street. The deed, still in a splendid state of preservation, bears a civil war tax stamp, and conveys to the late Thomas S. Cummin lot No. 14, which is the property of Mr. Moore, and a part of the Mollie Moore estate. It was conveyed to Mr. Cummin by William Hesse, who died in Toledo.

PIECES OF BURLAP AND BITS OF RAGS

Orange Peels, Banana Peels and Cakes of Soap,

PAPERS OF MANY SIZES AND SHAPES

Bits of Wood, Matches and About Every Old Thing Under the Sun Found in the East Church Street Sewer, Which Is Once More in Good Working Order.

The east Church street sewer is again in working order. Street Commissioner Kinsler, having located the scene of the trouble between the Harvey and Jacoby homes, something like a week ago, had his men dig down and open the sewer, when a surprising find greeted them. They found old rags, pieces of burlap, orange peels, banana skins, whole cakes of soap, pieces of wood, matches, papers of all sizes and shapes and about any and every old thing under the sun which had been carried down the sewer and lodged there. The obstruction having been removed, the sewer was thoroughly flushed, and a new manhole constructed where the excavation was made, the broken surface of the street being filled with a mixture of sand and cement, evenly apportioned.

For three weeks, the job of locating and removing the obstruction has been in progress, necessitating an outlay of hundreds of dollars by the city. Two or three men worked night and day at the job for a time, and at other times five or six men were on the job. Two pumps were utilized for a time, and the old steamer was also brought out and put at work on the job to clear the manhole at the corner of Church and Greenwood streets of water, so that men could go down in it to locate the obstruction by the use of short iron tubes, screwed together in the sewer, one by one. All this cost time and money, and the result is that somebody's almost criminal carelessness has cost the city possibly $300.

WILL PITCH TENT NEAR GRAND STAND

Chautauqua Assembly Tent Will Seat Two Thousand.

The executive committee of the Chautauqua association visited the fairground last Saturday and located the site of the assembly tent, which will be pitched west of the grand stand. The tent will be erected early next week, electric lighting arranged, and seated with a capacity of two thousand. There will be 1800 camp chairs, and so many of these will be reserved as demand suggests. The reservation will be provided only to accommodate those who desire to be assured of fixed seats.

At the meeting of the board Friday night many important questions of detail were determined. Fine reports of season ticket sales were made, many of the guarantors having disposed of all their holdings. It was decided positively to limit the sale at $1.50 to the issue to guarantors. On opening day of the Chautauqua week all season tickets will sell at $2.00.

PROSPECT OIL PEOPLE WILL DRILL AGAIN

First Hole Put Down by Them Proves a Duster.

The Prospect Oil and Gas company, having failed to locate oil or gas in a well drilled on the old Adams farm, decided at a meeting of the stockholders, held in the town hall in Prospect, Friday evening, to drill another well, which will probably be put down on the David Curren farm two miles south of the village.

After going down 2,300 feet on the Adams farm a cave-in occurred and the full length of cable, valued at $600, is fast in the hole. It is thought part of the cable can be saved, but the drill will be a total loss.

DRESSING ON LESS THAN TWO HUNDRED A YEAR

THE BUSINESS GIRL'S PROBLEM

A Foulard Silk Need not Cost Much if Simply Made

For Everyday Use a Serviceable Hat and Simple Veil

One Smartly Built Wool Suit is Imperative

The Tailored Shirtwaist Is the Business Girl's Standby

One Well Cut Tailored Suit Imperative - Hats the Most Expensive Item - Shoes and Gloves Must Be Irreproachable - What Not to Buy More Important Than What to Buy.

The little lost woman girl who has just begun the battle of making both ends meet on a small salary is apt to find herself confronted by a puzzling problem in the matter of her wardrobe.

When she finds that her modest income must be kept the most careful watch over if she would have a little left over for the occasional pleasure or diversion that every girl craves, she is apt to look upon her clothes allowance as the most elastic item in the budget and to stint herself in the matter of dress until she has reached the point at which she is ashamed to be seen in the street.

This is the worst economy of all, for the girl who is not well dressed loses in self respect and in the respect of others more than she can possibly gain by the practice of self denial.

The girl who has a small sum for dress should keep the money and have a little fun with it, rather than deny herself the pleasure of buying pretty things and then be unhappy because she has not the wherewithal to buy them.

And it is not a difficult matter to dress well on a small allowance if one has the right principles to start with.

The first of these is to buy as few clothes as possible, and the second is to buy only the best of their kind that one can afford.

The girl who has but one suit should never be satisfied with that which will do, but should insist upon having the best suit that she can afford, for the reason that it will be worn on all occasions when dressy clothes are required, and will therefore receive more than its share of hard wear.

Two tailored suits must do duty for the business girl who has a small allowance for dress, and she should choose for the first one a dark cloth of fine quality, which will look well and wear well for a long time.

The second suit may be of a lighter color, and may be made of one of the pretty cheviots or mixtures which are so much worn this season.

Such a suit will be found very useful for wear in the evening, when dressy clothes are not in order, and it will look well with a light waist.

Of course, the tailored suit should be made by a reliable tailor, for it is impossible to get a good fit unless the garment is made by one who understands the figure.

Discretion in Dress, the Most Important Thing

Some women seem to have a natural gift for dressing well, while others, with the same opportunities, never look as they should.

The difference between the well dressed woman and the poorly dressed one is largely a matter of discretion.

The woman who has the gift of dressing well knows what is suitable for her to wear, and what is not.

She knows that a plain tailored suit is always in good taste, and that a fussy waist with it is not.

No Application Made for Postal Savings Inaugural, but Marion Will Soon Have a Branch of Savings Department—Even Children Can Deposit in Ten-Cent Amounts.

Although Postmaster M B Dickerson has received no information from the department at Washington with regard to the establishment of a postal savings bank in the new Marion postoffice, it is likely that such will be a feature of the business of the new postoffice as the result of an act of congress just before it adjourned

It is announced that the presidential offices, of which Marion is one of 7,500, will first be opened for deposits, after which the scheme will be extended to all money-order offices, and, finally, the rural mail-carriers will be made agents of the big government savings bank.

Indications now are that the handsome new postoffice will not be ready for occupancy before September 1. It had been planned to move about the middle of August. Superintendent Howard Thayer, the government architect, is rushing the work to completion, but he will be delayed in finishing the interior on account of his inability to receive the furniture and fixtures at an early date. Postmaster Dickerson is unwilling to make the change until everything is in readiness, in order that he may hold a public opening.

"My present plan is to throw the federal building open to the public one afternoon and evening, so that the people can see what they've got in the way of a new postoffice, before we open up for business," declared the postmaster, Tuesday.

Postmaster Dickerson says that he does not intend to write to the department concerning the new postal savings feature, as other first-class postmasters have done. He thinks Uncle Sam will open up "savings accounts when and wherever he pleases," without any requests from him.

Any person having a dollar to deposit may go to a postoffice, after the savings bank department is inaugurated, and secure a pass-book, in which an account will be entered. Additional deposits may be made at any time, but no one will be permitted to have more than $500 on deposit at once, nor can any one deposit more than $100 in any one month. Any child of ten years or over may open an account with a dime. With that amount a child can get a stamp-card and the postoffice will sell him deposit stamps at ten cents each. The stamps will be pasted on his stamp-card and when he has ninety cents' worth on the card he can secure a pass-book, in which he will be credited with one dollar

Two per cent. interest will be paid by the government Married women may make deposits in their own name, and their husbands will have no right in them.

EQUALIZATION BOARD GETS READY FOR WORK

Commissioner Trout Is Made President.

NOTHING TO BE DONE FOR SOME WEEKS

Farm Lands Range from Twenty to Forty Dollars an Acre, So There Is Bound To Be a Shift of Figures. Board Will Make Quick Work of It When It Gets Down to Work.

The quadrennial county board of equalization was organized at a meeting held at the county commissioners' office at the courthouse, late Monday afternoon, but the work of equalizing the various returns made by the quadrennial assessors will not begin until the middle of August

The board is comprised of County Commissioners Henry Salter, A. H. Trout and W. H Holverstott, County Auditor Charles L. Allen and County Surveyor Edward S. Au't. On motion of Commissioner Holverstott, Commissioner Trout was unanimously elected president. Miss Perle Garfield, the commissioners' clerk, will act as secretary.

Auditor Allen, in response to a query, said that all of the village and township quadrennial assessors had turned in their reports with the exception of Assessor John J. Francis, of Marion township. The auditor said he had no information as to when the members of the Marion board of quadrennial assessors would make their report of the valuations placed on property in this city.

No definite date for holding the first session of the county board of equalization to take up the big job of equalizing was fixed, as the commissioners said they would "have their hands full with other matters" until some time in August It was agreed, however, that a meeting would be held about August 15.

Asked how much difference there was between the reports of the village and rural quadrennial assessors, Auditor Allen replied, with a smile:

"Only about fifty per cent." He added that in the townships the assessors appraised farm land as low as $20 an acre and as high as $40

"Well, I am in favor of making as short work as possible of this equalizing business," said Commissioner Holverstott "We can mighty soon equalize matters when we once get the figures before us"

Commissioners Seiter and Trout agreed with him.

$10,915,930 IS THE VALUE OF REALTY

In the City of Marion as Found by Assessors.

OLD APPRAISEMENT IS OVER $4,700,000

Thus the New Valuation Is Almost Six and a Quarter Million Dollars Higher Than the Present Appraisement—Figures on First Ward To Be Ready for Printer Soon.

Secretary Jacob G Leffler, of the Marion city board of quadrennial assessors stated Tuesday that the duplicate for the city on real estate alone will be $10,915,930, an increase of nearly six and a quarter millions over the present duplicate of $4,700,000 on real estate.

The board is busily engaged in taking twenty-five per cent. off the valuations formerly made in accordance with a resolution adopted several weeks ago. The total of $10,915,930, however, represents the amount of the 1911 duplicate, less the twenty-five per cent

The valutions for the First ward will be ready for the printer some time this week.

At Monday afternoon's session of the board the contract for printing all the valuations, together with the property-owners' names, was awarded to the Mirror Publishing company at its bid of eight cents a line. It is estimated that there are 5,000 or more property-owners in Marion and about 7,000 pieces of property. The name of each property-owner and the valuation of each piece of property constitute a line.

Four pamphlets will be printed, one for each ward in the city, and a copy mailed to every taxpayer. The pamphlets will contain about sixty lines to the page.

JUDICIAL STATISTICS FOR THE LAST YEAR

Sixty-Four Divorce Suits Are Filed in Court.

WOMEN APPLY AS THREE TO ONE

Over Six Hundred Cases Are Pending in Common Pleas Court, and Thirty-Eight in the Circuit Court—The Public Never Collects Many Fines Assessed—Gets Little Costs.

One hundred divorce cases were pending in the Marion common pleas court during 1910 according to judicial statistics compiled by County Clerk W. W. Kluetelter, who, under the law, must file his report with the secretary of state after the first day of July of each year. Of these one hundred cases, sixty-four were brought within the year, ending June 30 1910, and thirty-six were pending July 1, 1909. Eight were for adultery, fifty-seven for wilful absence and neglect, twenty-nine for cruelty and six for drunkenness. The number of cases decided within the year, ending June 30, 1910 was sixty-seven, with thirty-three still pending.

Of the hundred applicants for legal separation wives numbered seventy-seven, and husbands twenty-three. Thirty-five divorced wives were allowed alimony.

Clerk Kluetelter's report shows that thirteen husbands were granted decrees on grounds of adultery wilful absence and neglect, and cruelty, only three petitions filed by husbands being dismissed. Forty unhappy wives who brought actions for divorce were granted decrees, while one was refused a decree, and ten petitions were dismissed. It will be noted that "skiddoo 23" and "unlucky 13" figure prominently in connection with the marital troubles of the husbands

Of the sixty-seven cases granted during the year, the mother was given the custody of the children in twenty instances. In only five cases was the father given custody of the children

Jury fees during the year amounted to $2,958.75. The number of final decrees on civil causes was 319, the average amount of each judgment being $165.83. The fines amounted to $335, with only $50 collectible. The total costs was $2,573.44 each $1,082.20 taxed against defendants, and only $173.20 collected.

The common pleas and circuit court reports including both criminal and civil cases, show that 283 cases were pending in common pleas court and sixteen in the circuit court Jan 1 1909, while the number of cases filed during the year, ending Jan 1 1910, was: Common pleas court, twenty-two. The common pleas court disposed of 319 cases and the circuit court seventeen. In the common pleas court, twenty-two cases were taken to the next high court, while in the circuit court only one case was taken up. The number of cases pending June 1 1910 was: Common pleas court, circuit court, thirty-eight

In the seventy divorce cases were filed, and thirty-six were making a total of 106

FOUND DEAD IN HIS HAY FIELD

Death Comes Suddenly to Lewis Osborne, Tuesday,

AT HIS FARM HOME NEAR CALEDONIA

Found by Step-Son, Otho L. Campbell, of This City, Who Is Summoned by Phone by Osborne To Go to Caledonia and Help Step-Father in the Latter's Hay Field.

Caledonia, O, July 19.—[Special.]—Louis Osborne, a prosperous and highly-respected farmer of this vicinity was found dead in the hay field at his home, one and a half miles west of here, about 2 o'clock this afternoon. Death was due to heart failure.

Mr. Osborne, not being able to secure the needed help in his neighborhood, had phoned, this morning, to his stepson, Otho L. Campbell, of Marion, to come over and help in the hay field. Mr. Campbell arrived on Erie train No. 16, and while on the train passed the field and noticed Mr. Osborne's wagon, but no one was in sight. He came on to town and walked out from here. When he arrived at the farm, the other helpers were preparing to start for the field, Mr. Osborne having preceded them. Mr. Campbell immediately went to the field, and, on arriving there, found Mr Osborne lying in the field, dead. He had presumably just died, as he had been gone from the house only a short time.

The deceased had lived around Caledonia for many years and was quite well-to-do. He was one of the most prominent farmers in this vicinity, and his sudden demise comes as a shock to the entire community

A widow, a step-son, Mr Campbell, of Marion, and two grandchildren survive.

RAILROAD.

Messengers of the American Express company are on the lookout for a valuable dog and an Angora cat which escaped from Big Four train, No 24, near Caledonia, last week. The cat was being carried as express and the dog as baggage and when the train slowed down, the cat released itself from its box and leaped from the car No sooner had it left the car than the dog saw it and started in pursuit An effort is being made to locate both, but with little success Both the dog and cat were quite valuable and belonged to children to whom they were being sent at the time of their escape.

MOVEMENT FOR A NEW PARTY

Senator Cummins, of Iowa, Is Back of It.

PROPOSES UNION OF PROGRESSIVES

Convention Call Issued by Des Moines Paper.

Paper Urges All Those Who Favor Rooseveltian Policy of "Square Deal" and Bryan's Pronouncement of "Equal Rights for All and Special Privileges for None" To Meet in Kansas City.

Des Moines, Ia., July 21.—It is the general belief here that Senator A. B. Cummins is behind the movement to form a new political party, which shall combine the progressive leaders and members of both Republican and Democratic parties: including Theodore Roosevelt, William J. Bryan, both Iowa senators, Cummins and Dolliver; LaFollette, Beveridge, Pinchot, Garfield and a large number of the men prominent in national politics, but who are decidedly out of touch with the Taft administration.

Rumors of several days past assumed tangible form when the Des Moines News, Senator Cummins' personal organ, contained a leading editorial proposing that a convention be held at Kansas City, Sept 1, to form a new party "based on the Rooseveltian principle of the square deal," and which the News declares is only another way of stating the Bryan principle of "equal rights for all and special privileges for none." The News pleads for a uniting of the Republicanism of Lincoln and the Democracy of Jefferson for the purpose of "carrying forward of the flag of progress to its last and most blessed position of industrial freedom for all men."

Editor W. G. Hale, who wrote the proposed call, was a charter member of the Des Moines Bryan club, but has been a local supporter of Senator Cumming' political ambitions.

THE WILLOW SWAMP DITCH IMPROVEMENT

Is Granted by County Surveyor Ault This Morning.

The deepening, widening and straightening of Willow Swamp ditch, in Green Camp township, was granted by County Surveyor Edward S. Ault, after viewing the proposed improvement, this morning.

This is said to be the first time in the history of the county that the surveyor has granted an improvement of the kind. Usually the county commissioners grant such improvements, but, under the law, the surveyor has the power to act in the matter of deepening, widening and straightening ditches.

The proposed improvement will cost in the neighborhood of $4,000 or $5,000. The surveyor will now make a survey and fix the assessments and the commissioners will fix the date for a final hearing.

The ditch drains from 700 to 800 acres in Union county in addition to hundreds of acres in this county. It begins on the Christopher Wolfinger farm, on the Mt. Olive pike, and empties into the Scioto river on the farm of Carey Owens. The ditch is about four and one-half miles long, and has not been improved in the past twenty-five years.

The Beet Sugar Industry.

Beet sugar making is as yet an infant industry, with $130,000,000 invested. It is not old enough in this country to be developed without protection. But there are many indications that tend to show how we may some day compete with the world in the production of beet sugar.

A LIBEL CHARGE AGAINST GOVERNOR

Grand Jury Returns an Indictment Against Carroll, of Iowa.

Des Moines, Ia., July 21.—The Polk county grand jury, yesterday, returned an indictment charging criminal libel against Governor B. F. Carroll.

The indictment grows out of the quarrel between the governor and John Cownie, former chairman of the state board of state institutions, who was removed by the governor a few months ago. In connection with the removal, the governor made charges of mismanagement and immorality against Cownie who took the matter before the grand jury. The governor appeared by attorney and gave bond. The trial will probably take place at the September term of court.

The case has also a political touch in that Cownie is a progressive and Carroll a standpatter. Cownie was considered as a candidate for governor at one time by the Republicans, but did not enter the race.

PRESIDENT TAFT EXPLAINS LETTER

Says He Gives Kinkade Introduction to Roosevelt.

Bar Harbor, Me., July 21.—Professor Henry C. Emery of Yale, chairman of the national tariff board, dropped in here today to tell President Taft about his recent trip to Europe. He explained the nature of his investigations abroad, which were mainly directed toward obtaining a basis for a comparison of cost of production at home and abroad. The interview took place on board the Mayflower, which is at anchor in the harbor.

The president told friends that the letter which Judge Reynold Kinkade of Toledo carried from Beverly to Oyster Bay was merely an introduction from him to Colonel Roosevelt. Judge Kinkade is a candidate for the gubernatorial nomination of the Republican party in Ohio and was said to desire the indorsement of the president and Colonel Roosevelt. The president told some friends that Judge Kinkade asked for an introductory letter and that was all he got.

BURTON IGNORES JAMES GARFIELD

Senator Has a Good Word for All Other Candidates.

Cleveland, O., July 21.—Senator Theodore Burton gave out a statemen purporting to define his position relative to the Ohio insurgents led by James R. Garfield, but it left the politicians very much in the dark. He expressed satisfaction with the gubernatorial candidates, Secretary of State Thompson, Judge Brown and Former Lieutenant Governor Harding, but ignored Garfield's candidacy altogther. Regarding the state Republican convention platform he said some of Garfield's planks suited him, and wound up his statement with these words: "Even the president of the United States has not sought to dictate a single plank of the platform, although he is a resident of the state of Ohio."

TO GET BACK TO OLD LAND SCHEME

Philanthropists To Send Eastern Poor to Western Farms.

Greeley, Colo., July 20.—Miss Jane Addams of Hull House, Chicago; Jacob Rus, Rev. Lyman Abbott, W. J. Bryan and others have organized an association to buy large tracts of land near here and cut it up into small farms and garden spots.

These they will sell to deserving families in the east who want homes in the west, but are without means. The association will accept payments in easy installments in cash or will take a share of the crops. Interest will be charged. The scheme will not be entirely philanthropic, but will give the promoters only a moderate profit.

TWO BOLD THIEVES HELP THEMSELVES

Politely Take Diamonds from Chicago Store in Daylight.

Chicago, July 21.—Three trays filled with diamonds valued at $4,000 were stolen from the window of M. Springer, a jeweler at Ashland avenue and Twelfth street, yesterday. While the street was crowded with people, three men smashed the window with a stone and each calmly helped himself to a tray and vanished.

Although the police were on the scene within a few minutes after the robbery, they have been unable to trace the thieves.

LEAVES SCHOOLS OF THE INDUSTRIAIL HOME

Miss Marlow Resigns as Superintendent and Goes to Chicago.

Delaware, O., July 21.—Miss Fay Margaret Marlow, superintendent of schools at the State Industrial home here for the past two years, has resigned her position and leaves, Saturday, for Chicago, where she will enter the Presbyterian hospital. Miss Marlow is a graduate of Dennison university, and before becoming superintendent of schools at the home, was for five years principal of the high school there.

PARENTS WANT HUGE DAMAGES

Etherington's Relatives Ask for $40,000.

KENTUCKY MAN COMES TO NEWARK

Retains Attorney To Fight Linke and Others.

President of Mercer County Bank of Harrodsburg, Kentucky, Makes Formal Demand on Licking County Authorities for $5,000 Authorized by the State To Be Paid Estate of Persons Lynched.

Newark, O., July 20.—George Bohon, president of the Mercer National bank of Harrodsburg, Ky., and administrator of the estate of Carl Etherington, the Anti-Saloon detective lynched here July 8, made formal demand on the Licking county authorities for the $5,000 damages authorized by the state to be paid by the county to the estate of persons lynched.

Bohon said that he would bring suit in the federal court for $40,000 damages against Former Sheriff Linke and his bondsmen. He has retained a Columbus attorney. That Etherington was but a few months over 17 years of age when lynched was declared by Bohon.

The grand jury is making slow progress in its probing of the affair. But a comparatively few witnesses have been examined, and while it has been the belief that they would finish their work in three or four days, it is now thought that it will be almost a week before a report is made.

The first man to be released out of the 25 or 30 in custody for the lynching was William Wurster, the Zanesville lad, who was arrested with the charge of murder against him.

Wurster's father at once secured the services of an attorney and a determined fight was made to get the lad released. The charge of first degree murder was withdrawn and Wurster was admitted to bail in the sum of $2,000, which was furnished.

COUNTERFEITING PLANT IN PRISON

Warden of Massachusetts State Prison Admits This.

Boston, July 21.—That a counterfeiting plant, turning out half dollars, has been discovered in a cell in the Massachusetts state prison at Charlestown was admitted, today, by the warden, D. F. Bridges, who added that a thorough search of the prison is being conducted to ascertain whether any more of the "queer" is concealed about the penitentiary.

The discovery of the plant followed a quarrel between two prisoners as the result of a bet made on the regular Sunday afternoon baseball game played in the prison yard. One of the prisoners won a half dollar from another. He objected to the coin given him, because it was counterfeit. A guard overheard the quarrel and an investigation revealed, in one of the cells, a complete moulding outfit.

GASOLINE EXPLOSION SINKS BIG SCHOONER

Nearly Wrecks United States Naval Station at San Juan.

San Juan, Porto Rico, July 21.—The explosion of 5,000 gallons of gasoline on board a coastwise schooner in the harbor, yesterday, sunk the vessel and nearly wrecked the United States naval station here. The vessel, outbound for Ponce, was near the navel station when the explosion occurred. Marines attempted to salvage a portion of the cargo of gasoline, which was in five gallon cans. Many of these were placed on the dock near the naval station, when another explosion occurred and set fire to the navy buildings. The marines after a hard fight succeeded in extinguishing the blaze.

One member of the crew of the schooner was seriously injured by the first explosion

ITALIAN COURT CIRCLES STIRRED

Correspondence of King Victor and Roosevelt Is Cause.

Rome, July 21.—Italian court circles are today expressing intense interest in a correspondence King Victor Emmanuel is said to have been carrying on with ex-President Roosevelt since the latter's visit to the king, while Roosevelt was returning from Africa.

The general impression is that questions of Italian emigration to the United States and an international disarmament plan are the themes of the letters.

WILL ENTERTAIN VISITING SCRIBES

Columbus Newspaper Men Prepare for Convention.

Columbus, O., July 20.—Newspaper men who visit this city during the sessions of the Republican state convention next Tuesday and Wednesday are assured of royal treatment by the local press committee, elaborate preparations for their entertainment having been completed.

Manager Albert Bernet of the American Press Association, who is chairman of the press committee, announces that headquarters for visiting newspaper men will be opened at Room 29, Nell House, where every provision for their comfort will be made. In Memorial hall, where the sessions of the convention will be held, each table in the press section will be provided with a telephone with long distance connections. Telegraph offices will be within easy reach of the correspondents. A swell buffet lunch in convention hall will be among the feature of the entertainment of the correspondents, who will find little time during the hustle and bustle of the convention to satisfy the wants of the inner man.

The convention will be called to order by Walter F. Brown, chairman of the state central committee, at 4 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, at which time Temporary Chairman Nicholas Longworth will deliver his keynote address, and the committees selected by the district meetings earlier in the afternoon will be reported to the convention.

Immediately after the adjournment of the temporary organization the various committees will meet for the transaction of business at the following places:

Credentials, governor's office; permanent organization, secretary of state's office; rules and order of business, auditor of state's office; resolutions, Chittenden hotel (Parlor B); state central committee, Nell House (Room 38).

Senator Burton will undoubtedly be chosen as permanent chairman of the convention and Senator Dick chairman of the resolutions committee.

ARMY HEROISM RUNS IN STRANGE STREAKS

Cooks and Musicians Come in for a Share of Honor.

Washington, July 20.—Heroism in the army runs in strange freaks, according to the dist of certificates of merit awarded to enlisted men for bravery during the fiscal year ended June 30. In the list which has just been made public by the department, four men are from the coast artillery corps, one from the infantry, one from the signal corps, two are cooks and one a musician.

Despite the fact that cooks and musicians are not expected especially to display courage, they occupy one-third of the list for heroic rescue. Thomas Williamson, who is a cook for Company A, of the Twenty-Sixth infantry, saved a native Filipino boy from drowning. Henry Reister a cook in the coast artillery company at Fort McKinley, Maine, jumped off a dock into icy water to save a comrade.

Victod Turner, a musician, with Company O., Seventeenth regiment Infantry, did the same thing at Sweetwater creek.

BEER OBJECTS TO THE SALE OF BEER

A Cleveland Saloon Keeper Starts Things by Novel Sign.

Cleveland, O., July 21.—"This is John D.'s place. Noon-day lunch 10c, including soup."

Because this sign appeared in the window of John D. Schnapp's saloon, in the town where John D Rockefeller lives in summer time, mine host Schnapps must answer to a charge of keeping a disorderly place.

Frank J. Marmann, admirer of the oil magnate, today, signed the affidavit and Attorney Frederick T. Beer son of the late circuit judge, Thomas Beer, of Bucyrus, will prosecute the charge.

Marmann says he'll see whether John D.'s name shall be flaunted itials that made Standard Oil so house and Beer says no beverage of that name shall be sold over the initials that made Standard Oil so famous.

FINALLY DECIDE UPON ST. PAUL

September Conservation Congress To Be Held There.

Chicago, July 21.—St. Paul was finally decided upon, yesterday, as the meeting place of the September conservation conference. President Taft will open the congress on "Governors'" day and Attorney Brandeis, counsel for L. R. Glavis in the recent congressional investigation, will not be on the program.

Representative Minnesotans and officers of the conservation association, met at the Congress hotel here, and decided upon these matters.

At the conclusion of the conference a message was sent to President Taft inviting him to open the congress on "Governors'" day September 5, one day earlier than was previously planned. Governors of all states will be invited to attend and give their views on conservation.

"Roosevelt" day will be September 6, and Colonel Roosevelt will be the chief speaker.

LIGHTNING HITS AN AEROPLANE

Remarkable Incident Occurs in Italy.

AVIATOR MAKES A MIRACULOUS ESCAPE

Machine Bursts into Flames and Descends.

Spectators Who Witness Accident Expect To Find Aviator Dead in Ruins and Are Greatly Surprised To See Him Crawl, Unhurt, Out of the Wreckage—Metal Work Is Fused by Heat.

Paris, July 20.—The most remarkable accident in the history of aerial navigation occurred, today, when an aeroplane in which M. Ehrmann was making a cross-country flight, was struck by a bolt of lightning and completely destroyed. Ehrmann had a miraculous escape from death, falling a considerable distance in his scorched machine.

Those who witnessed the accident declare that Ehrmann, at a fair height, was flying along through a thunder cloud when the lightning bolt descended. The aeroplane instantly burst into flames and fell, turning over and over. All expected to find Ehrmann crushed under the ruins and were greatly surprised to see him crawl, unhurt, out of the wreckage.

Eye-witnesses say when the lightning struck the machine, its great canvas wings seemed to disappear, while portions of the metal work were fused by the great heat.

The accident occurred at Pardenone, a small town in Italy. Ehrmann had been in the air thirty-five minutes and was flying well at the time the bolt wrecked his aeroplane. Ehrmann was a newcomer in the field of aviation and little is known of his record.

Choose the Beautiful.

There is a beautiful and an ugly way in which to say almost everything, and happiness depends upon which way we take . . . Not only in words, but in all the little, common courtesies and duties of life, think of the beautiful way of doing each.—D. L. Porter.

State Botanist Selby, of Ohio State university, issues an appeal for the maple and other shade trees of the cities. He says they do not get water enough under ordinary conditions. Householders in Marion should give heed to the warning. Water your shade trees.

The resignation of the sheriff of Licking county is the first entirely satisfactory solution of the mystery of the missing Links.

An Akron man got off a street car the other day in front of a motor cycle, and his funeral was largely attended. Probably there will have to be a number of casualties like this before these speed demons are curbed by law.

A Pennsylvania woman of the age of eighty three years, took her first ride on a railway last week. Having survived this ordeal she will soon be ready to try an automobile and if spared another eight or three years may even try an aeroplane.

Probably if the modest gooseberry had been 'evolved' by Mr Burbank and given a fancy name, it would have been awarded the place its general excellence merits.

It has been discovered that the garter snake is the most potent destroyer of the fly and the potato bug. Still some people will prefer the insects.

Bernard Shaw says he can't see anything great about Roosevelt. Evidently none of the Shaw books got into that pigskin library. Perhaps its professional jealousy, Bernard never stacked up in the $1 per word class.

While city officials are reflecting on sewer troubles, it is timely to note that human responsibility attaches to those who have little of the burdens of paying for construction.

Uncle Joe Cannon can never be charged with lack of courage. It takes a brave man to undertake a speaking campaign in Kansas in the summer time, even when other conditions are favorable. But to invade a territory made hostile by William Allen White and Vic Murdock to say nothing of the pestiferous Bristow is certainly a supreme test of nerve and endurance.

Down at Beverly among Ohio Republicans, it seems to be a struggle to be the last one to see the president. We shall get the echo of this struggle among giants when the dope is handed out at Columbus next week. But the standard of Republican intelligence in Ohio is higher than is assumed by some of the tourists to Beverly.

It is said that the funeral of King Edward cost $202,500. And still some people will talk of the high cost of living.

We wonder if it could be true that Senator Beveridge talked again the tariff bill for publication and campaign purposes but would have voted for it if his vote had been needed. Probably not. The season for campaign lies is now on.

We suspect the forthcoming committee report, in which the majority stands firmly by Secretary Ballinger, is justified by the facts brought out at the hearing, but the popular opinion of the country will not accord. However, President Taft has done more for conservation, in one or two sweeping, lawful orders, than the pretenders would have accomplished in forty years. Conservation is an established fact.

It doesn't cost a cent to boost the Chautauqua, and it costs only the price of a seat at the theater to take in the entire program. The cost of living may be top lofty, but the cost of a bit of mental elevation and wholesome diversion is astonishingly cheap.

They say the water is fine at Cedar Point. This rumor always grows current when the excursion season takes the big swing.

One of the staff got a good cantaloupe in five trials last week. If he knew the lid was off at French Lick Springs he would be tempted to hurry thither and see if his good luck is permanent.

Uncle Joe Cannon complains that the editors have used the blue pencil on his speeches. Maybe it's a result of force of habit gained in editing his stories.

Of course, it is understood that Colonel Roosevelt, in stating that he was seeking the best man for governor of New York, meant the best man whose past eminence was not such that he was estopped from taking which might be taken as a come down.

It is becoming more and more evident that the newspaper fellows do not have to pass through any trocha to get to Sagamore Hill.

James A. Patten, who has retired from the market, cleaned up $2,000,000 on cotton last week. Think what that man might have made had he not turned his back with scorn upon the practice of gambling in products!

It is manifest that the fellow who goes up in an aeroplane should have in his equipment in addition to a parachute and a life preserver, a lightning rod.

Colorado, the Cleveland Leader tells us, can raise twenty five bushels of grasshoppers to the acre, but that will afford mighty little consolation to a lot of hungry people who will persevere in their declared liking for hiphops.

Still the Hon J Arthur Johnson needn't get cocky because he was offered a bribe of $ [illegible] to throw down his friend and foe to defries. Maybe he never heard how our handsome and gifted young friend, Frank S Monnette turned down that offer of a $100,000 bribe to throw down the ticket within reach of the tentacles of the Standard Oil octopus.

BERT BRIGGS' HEARING CONCLUDED MONDAY

Matter Taken Under Advisement by the Mayor.

HEAVY DRINKERS AT THE BRIGGS HOME

Bookkeeper at Brewery Testifies That Briggs Purchased as High as Seventy-Two Cases of Beer in Sixty Day—Other Witnesses Testify To Buying Booze.

The hearing of Bert Briggs, on a charge of selling intoxicating liquors at his home on Grant street about two weeks ago, was concluded before the mayor Monday evening about 9 o'clock, about seven hours being required to hear the testimony in the case and the arguments of the attorneys.

The prosecution was represented by City Solicitor E. T. Boyd and Attorney J. H. Clark, and the defendant by Attorney J. H. Eymon and Attorney F. W. Warner.

Eight witnesses were called to the stand by the prosecution. Arthur Bent, colored, and his white wife, who were arrested in this city about two weeks ago and sent to the workhouse from Columbus, were brought back to testify against Briggs. Both testified that while in Marion they visited the home of Briggs several different days and purchased beer and whisky. They also told where Briggs kept his supply.

I. W. Tron, a bookkeeper at the brewery, was called to the stand to testify as to how much beer Briggs was accustomed to buying. He testified that Briggs purchased as high as seventy-two cases in sixty days. Chief Klinefelter, Captain Bond and Officer Cusic, who made the search at the Briggs' home, testified that they found the beer and whisky under a stairway where Bent and his wife testified it was kept. James Kelly and his wife were also called to the stand, their testimony being of less importance.

Briggs was the only witness in his own behalf. He testified that he purchased such a large supply of beer for his own use and that it was disposed of by himself, his wife and a couple of relatives and friends.

At the close of the testimony the attorneys for the defendant filed a motion for dismissal, the motion being overruled by the mayor. Following the arguments of the attorneys, the mayor announced that he would reserve his decision indefinitely, and Briggs was released by furnishing a bond of $250 for his appearance.

Chief Klinefelter received a telephone communication from Findlay, Wednesday, asking him to try and locate a girl by the name of Lulu Snider. The girl is supposed to have relatives in Marion by the name of Yorhum, and intended coming here, but it is believed she changed her plans and joined a sailor in Toledo with the purpose of eloping.

When John Barrett was arraigned before the mayor, Monday, to answer to a charge of intoxication, he entered a plea of not guilty, and his hearing was set for Wednesday. An affidavit was then filed against him by Chief Klinefelter, but when the time for the hearing came, he arranged a settlement.

AUTO HITS RIG; TEARS OFF WHEEL

Owner of the Auto Orders Repairs on Buggy.

Wednesday, about 11 o'clock Dr. A. M. Crane's automobile ran into a rig hitched in front of David Martin's grocery on east Center street, and tore off a wheel and broke the shaft of the vehicle. The headlight of the machine was broken.

Mrs. William Wittred, of near Caledonia, the owner of the outfit, was in the grocery at the time the accident occurred.

Dr. Crane, who was driving the machine, immediately ordered the rig repaired.

Reserved Chautauqua Seats $1.

Solely for the accommodation of Chautauqua patrons who wish to be sure of good seats, the management has decided to reserve such a number of chairs as may be demanded. The reservation will be limited to the manifest demand. The cost is only enough to compensate the workers needed to provide this accommodation, only 10 cents. For those who wish it, a reserve seat may be secured for the entire week, for the afternoon and evening sessions, for one dollar.

The assembly tent will contain 1,000 camp chairs, and 200 additional seats. There will be seats for all patrons. The few reserved seats are solely to oblige those who want to be certain of choice seats without being harassed in going to the grounds.

ANOTHER PIKE IS TO BE IMPROVED

Tar-Macadam To Be Applied to the Prospect Pike.

At a meeting of the county commissioners, Tuesday afternoon, it was unanimously decided to build another piece of macdam pike similar to the two-mile strip on the Caledonia pike beginning at the east end of Center street at Garfield park. County Surveyor Edward S. Ault will take the measurements of the road to be improved some time this week. It is planned to tar-macdam about two miles and half on the Marion-Prospect pike, beginning at the end of the present south Prospect street paving and running to the Hocking Valley Railway company's right-of-way. The cost of the improvement will amount to about $4,000.

MANY BIDDERS ARE EXPECTED

At Letting of Contract for the Scioto Improvement.

County Surveyor Edward S. Ault is making preparations for the sale of the big improvement of the Scioto river, the contract for which will be awarded to the lowest bidder at the office of the surveyor, Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, August 17.

Nothing is now to prevent the contract being let on the date fixed by the commissioners, as the time for taking appeals to the courts has now passed.

Surveyor Ault says there will be fifteen or twenty bidders for the job, the estimated cost of which is $69,000. The dredge and team work will be awarded in separate contracts.

Cash Register Taken.

Through an execution on a judgment of $198.50 on an account obtained by the National Cash Register company, of Dayton, against W. G. Mautz, proprietor of a meat market at Main and Church streets, Constable James F. Ullom, of the court of Justice Charles H. Conley secured a big cash register valued at $300, Wednesday morning.

ORGAN RECITAL IS A DECIDED SUCCESS

Every Seat in Salem's Evangelical Church Taken.

FULLY A HUNDRED ARE TURNED AWAY

The Program of the Evening Proves One of the Most Entertaining Ever Given in the City—Those Taking Part Are Entertained at the Parsonage Following the Recital.

Every available seat in the auditorium of the Salem's Evangelical Protestant church was taken early Tuesday evening when an organ recital was given by a number of prominent local musicians. Over a hundred people were turned away, and standing room was at a premium.

The recital proved one of the best given here for some time, each number being rendered in magnificent fashion. The new organ, dedicated last Sunday, was used for the first time in recital. The program of the evening consisted of various numbers and all of those participating showed marked talent.

Miss Mabel Leffler opened the program with a splendid organ prelude. Miss Clara Leffler followed with an excellent violin solo, and Signor Joseph Muscat rendered a vocal solo with much feeling. Mrs. V. E. Dornbaugh rendered "Buena Notte" and Scherzo "Fan-Fare" on the organ in superb style, after which a male quartet, under the direction of Signor Muscat, sang "Onward Christian Soldiers."

After an intermission, at which time a silver offering was taken, Miss Grace Durfee gave a couple of pleasing organ selections, and Mrs. Charles Allen sang "Ave Marie," being accompanied on the violin by Miss Clara Leffler. After the singing of "Gloria" by the church choir, a violin solo was given by Miss Clara Leffler and Miss Jessie L. Havill closed the program of the evening with an organ selection which delighted all.

Immediately following the recital, the persons taking part in the program were entertained by the committee arranging the program at the parsonage of Rev. and Mrs. Joseph Reinicke. The evening was spent socially.

BIG FREE SESSION AT THE CHAUTAUQUA

Bits of News Concerning Marion's First Assembly.

The management of the next week's Chautauqua have decided on one big free assembly meeting, and have fixed it for Tuesday afternoon, July 26, when everybody may hear the great Chicago G'ee club, and enjoy the lecture of Colonel Bob Seeds. The day has been called "Farmers' Day," because Colonel Seeds is originally a farmer. But he is a whirlwind as a lecturer. He has made half the whole country laugh and think, and left glowing sunshine in his wake. Farmers are especially invited to this free session, but everybody is welcome. Season ticket holders will be protected by a reservation of seats for their accommodation. Let everybody understand they will be welcome Tuesday afternoon, free of all charge.

General Manager Whysall of the Marion and Bucyrus line has made a special rate for Bucyrus people during Chautauqua week. Round trip tickets will sell at forty cents. A big Bucyrus patronage is expected.

The ladies of the German M. E. church are making big preparations for their dining-hall service during the week. They will serve meals and lunch, at popular prices, and the menu will be high-class. People who choose to go to the grounds for the morning lectures can get their noon meals on the grounds, and people who wish to make but one trip for both afternoon and evening, can have supper served at the grounds. Carriages and automobiles will be admitted to the grounds.

Will Get An Extension

Members of the Marion board of review, through County Auditor Charles L. Allen, Tuesday, made application to the state board of appraisers and assessors at Columbus for an extension of 100 days to act as a board of equalization and revision to pass on the returns made by the city board of quadrennial assessors. The application was granted, thus giving the board 160 days in which to complete the work.

TWENTY-FIVE PER CENT. REDUCTION

In Assessed Value of the Realty of Marion

MAY BE PUT BACK ON THE DUPLICATE

Smaller Corporations of the County Are Making Complaint—The City Board of Review May Take Action. Whole Matter May Go to the State Board.

That the city board of review may reverse the action of the city board of quadrennial assessors in knocking off twenty-five per cent. of the total appraisement is probable. This statement is made upon reliable authority.

The board of review, as a board of equalization and revision to pass on the returns made by the city board of quadrennial authorities, has the power to put back the twenty-five per cent. taken off if it deems that such action is necessary to equalize the appraisement.

Village assessors, who, in accord with an agreement with the members of the Marion board of quadrennial assessors, assessed property at its true value in money, are indignant. They say they have been "double-crossed" by the members of the city board in taking off twenty-five per cent. after the village assessors had made their returns at the true value in money.

Considerable pressure will be brought to bear upon the board of review, by reason of this fact, to influence the members in raising the valuations twenty-five per cent., the amount taken off.

Village assessors assert emphatically that something must be done in the matter, as the people in the small towns of the county do not intend to pay taxes on property assessed at its full value in money when Marion is paying but three-fourths of the true value.

Farm lands in the county are assessed at an average of about $32 an acre, and, unless the county board of equalization, composed of the commissioners, county auditor and county surveyor, materially increase the valuations, the indications are that there will be a squabble which will result in a re-appraisement by the state tax commission.

IS FINED AND SENT TO THE WORKHOUSE

Homer Berry Pleads Guilty to Beating a Board Bill.

Homer Berry, charged with defrauding Mrs. Nancy Diehl, of Copeland avenue, out of a board bill of $19.50, pleaded guilty before Justice Charles H. Conley, Wednesday, and was fined $25 and costs and sentenced to thirty days in the Columbus workhouse. The fine and costs, together with the sentence, will keep him confined in the institution a period of ninety-seven days.

Berry, who is about twenty-one yeads old, was taken to the workhouse by Constable James F. Ullom, Wednesday afternoon.

REAPPRAISEMENT MAY BE ORDERED

State Tax Commission May Take Such Action.

IT HAS AUTHORITY TO SECURE EQUITY

Has Final Jurisdiction Over Both the County and City Boards and May Increase the Values of Country Lands To Make the Burden of Taxation Fair to All.

That the new state tax commission will be compelled to use its authority to secure a full and equitable appraisement of real estate in some portions of the state is indicated by reports that have drifted into the commission's office at Columbus. The commission has power to order a reappraisement in any county, if it thinks it necessary.

Through newspaper reports the state commission is learning that the reappraisement of real estate in many of the counties, as in 1890 and 1900, is proving considerable of a farce. Following the example set by the realty assessors ten years ago many appraisers are placing property in their reports on a twenty-five per cent. basis.

The tax commission will watch for these newspaper reports to gain information concerning appraisements. Of course, the commission can not act on unofficial information when no formal complaint has been made. However, information of official reinissness will be filed away for future reference.

The tax commission is not due to take up the real estate valuations until October after the quadrennial county boards of equalization and the quadrennial city boards of review have completed their work. A general supervision is exercised over these boards.

With eighty-eight county boards and quadrennial boards in several dozen cities the task of supervision is of no mean size and of vast importance.

County boards of equalization are composed of the auditor, the surveyor and the commissioners These boards began work Monday, and as has been explained by State Auditor Fullington, have power and authority to increase the aggregate value of the returns made by the realty assessors, though they may not reduce the aggregate value. The county boards may order horizontal percentage increases on all real estate or may order such increases on certain parcels or tracts as will put them on at true value. In cities the boards of review take the place of the county boards of equalization.

After the reports have been made to the state tax commission that body will sit as a board of equalization as between counties, cities, townships and taxing districts. The tax commission then is ready to hear complaints of improper assessments. Finding returns below the true value in money it may order horizontal percentage increase.

We can not depend on information not brought to our notice officially," said Judge Ditley of the tax commission Wednesday. "We are not clairvoyants."

The tax commission has no doubt that complaints a-plenty will have to be ironed out when it is ready to take up its review of the reviewing boards' reports in the fall.

That no hardships may be worked against individuals that have an opportunity to be heard before boards of revision composed of the county boards of review, next May.

BEGIN SUIT TO SET ASIDE WILL

Action Is Brought by Marion Attorneys in Morrow County.

William and J. E. Manahan, through Attorneys DeGolley and DeGolley, of this city, have begun suit in the Morrow county common pleas court against James Patten and others to set aside the will of the late Mary F. Patten, made February 1, 1906, and admitted to probate June 2, 1910.

The petition sets up that the will probated December 31, 1908, revoked all others, and was the last will made by the decedent. It is further alleged that the recent court decision in setting aside the will made in December, 1908, was the result of an agreement between the parties for the purpose of reviving the will made in 1906. The prayer of the petition is that the will of 1906 be set aside and declared not the last will and testament of Mary F. Patten.

The plaintiffs to the action reside in Marion. The setting aside of the will involves an estate of about $18-000.

On Paternity Charge.

Albert Corwin, an employe of the Marion Steam Shovel company, was arrested by Deputy Sheriff Cornelius Breen, Thursday, on a paternity charge preferred by Miss Bessie Rayner, of Mt. Victory. Corwin, who is twenty-one years old, was taken to Kenton by Sheriff J. H. Wagner, of Hardin county, two hours after his arrest. Corwin's home is at Mt. Victory.

HOKE W. DONITHEN IS MADE REFEREE

To Handle Bankruptcy Cases in Marion County.

Hoke W. Donithen has been appointed referee in bankruptcy for Marion county by the newly-appointed federal district judge for northern Ohio, Judge J. M. Killetts. Mr. Donithen's term is fixed at two years.

Marion's bankruptcy cases have heretofore been handled by Referee Robert Carey, of Upper Sandusky, whose territory comprised Marion and Wyandot counties. Judge Carey was a highly satisfactory referee, in every way, but Marion litigants in the bankruptcy court found some inconvenience in not having a resident referee. This was essentially the only county in Ohio without a resident referee, and when application was made to the court, the appointment was readily assented to.

Mr. Donithen's appointment will be highly agreeable to the Marion bar, and business interests generally. He is a capable lawyer, is prompt in all undertakings, and personally very popular. Judge Killetts could not have made a more satisfactory appointment.

J. H. TERRY DIES OUT IN COLORADO

Well Known in This Vicinity Before Moving to West.

James E. Phillips has received a telegram announcing the sudden death at Silverton, Colorado, of J. H. Terry. Mr. Terry was a former resident of this vicinity, his earlier years having been spent near Marseilles, where he and his family were well-known and widely connected. For many years he has been successfully engaged in mining in the West. He was the owner of the Sunnyside mine, one of the famous gold producers of the West.

Mr. Terry was a widower, his wife having died three years ago. He is survived by three adult children. The funeral and interment took place at Pueblo, Colorado.

The deceased was a relative of Mr. Phillips.

CITY OF MARION HAS 4,880 LAND-OWNERS

And They Own, Approximately, 9,040 Parcels of Land.

THESE ARE FIGURES OF SECRETARY LEFFLER

First Ward Leads in Number of Parcels and Land-Owners, Having 3,009 of the Former and 1,520 of the Latter—The End of Assessors' Work Yet Far Away.

Marion has approximately 9,040 parcels of land and 4,880 land-owners, or nearly twice as many parcels of land as there are land-owners.

These are the figures obtained by Secretary Jacob G. Leffler, of the city board of quadrennial assessors, at the request of County Auditor Charles L. Allen, who states that it has never been known before exactly how many parcels of land and how many people owned the same in Marion.

The task of counting the different parcels and owners was a big one, and was completed by Secretary Leffler, this morning. Mr. Leffler says that the figures are not precisely correct, but as accurate as they can be secured.

The First ward contains 3,009 parcels, with 1,520 land-owners. In the Second ward there are 1,527 parcels, with 862 owners. The Third ward comes next to the First ward in the number of parcels with 2,661, the owners numbering 1,484 in that ward. The Fourth ward has 1,833 parcels and 1,014 land-owners.

Asked when the board would conclude its work, Secretary Leffler said that he had no idea. "We've turned a part of the First ward over to the printer, and will turn over the rest as rapidly as we can prepare the figures," he said.

Members of the board still refuse to give out for publication the valuations made by them on property. They declare any individual may find out from the board what his or her property valuation is, but that they will not announce any list of valuations to the public. The reason given for this position, which is contrary to practically all other boards in Ohio is that they desire to avoid any trouble on the part of "kickers" until their work is completed.
